

College Bound?

College-Bound-Students.com provides you with a personal, interactive, multi-media web site and CD-rom presentation to include with your college entrance and scholarship aid applications. Powerfully effective and technologically efficient, these attention-demanding tools definitely make an impression – and distinguish you from countless other competing applicants.

Consider the challenge:

- College applications continue to rise dramatically, yet the number of students being accepted remains almost static.
- A recent article in US News and World Report, mentions a consultant in New York that charges in excess of $29,000 per student to consult on college admission. This consultant is booked for a year, with a waiting list!
- The role of technology in the college admission process is changing at warp speed – and with it the requirement that smart applicants capitalize on technological advantages.
